

Interconnection Process Reform Task Force (IPRTF) Monthly Progress Report

March 21, 2022

Interconnection Process Reform

Interconnection New Service requests have drastically increased over the past few years. The Interconnection Process Reform Task Force (IPRTF) will discuss challenges related to the interconnection process and look for opportunities to improve the process via the Consensus Based Issue Resolution (CBIR) process.

Problem Statement

Issue Charge

Problem Statement/Issue Charge approved at Planning Committee on April 6, 2021

Issue Status

The IPRTF solution packages for a new interconnection process and solution packages to determine how PJM will transition to a new process have progressed through the Planning Committee.

Target Completion

The IPRTF is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2022.

Progress Update

The new process and transition packages, along with the OATT language updates, will be brought to the March 23, 2022 MRC for a first read.

Action Requested

PJM Legal and Planning personnel are working on the OATT language updates. The language will be reviewed with the IPRTF on March 11, 2022. Please register and attend the upcoming IPRTF meetings in March to review the OATT language changes and provide any feedback you may have.
